

st., arrested on suspicion of having been connected with 100 or more thefts.

Mounted Policeman Bernard Kelly attacked by a crowd of 300 boys at W. Monroe and Green sts. after he had arrested two of their friends on charge of robbing telephone boxes.

Municipal Court bailiffs, beginning next week, will wear blue uniforms.

International Brotherhood of Teamsters have begun campaign to organize chauffeurs. Milk Wagon Drivers' Union voted $10,000 to aid in this work.

Joseph Zalka, 22, Kankakee, arrested by Desplaines st. police, confessed that he threw Charles Meskella from third-story window at 634 W. Madison st.

John Gera, 40, laborer, 1603 Julien st., killed himself; gas. Had quarrel with wife.

Fourteen people arrested in South Chicago for letting their cows take stroll down sidewalks.

Henry Evans, 212 W. 67th st., painter, killed by 50-foot fall from water tower in stock yards.

John C. McDonnell, chief of fire prevention bureau, will co-operate in effort to maintain "sane Fourth."

Thomas Moore, 52, 9236 Jefferson av., killed at 94th st. and Washington av. Switch engine.

Robert Schaefer, Lowell, Ind., railroad section foreman, and daughter Mary killed when train struck handcar on which he was taking family to Snyder, Ind.

SYLVAN TRAGEDY

He wore a pair of white duck pants

Unto the picnic in the wood.

He sat down on the wet, damp grass

When it came time to tackle food.

• • •

That night for home he made a rush
Inside a bunch of underbrush.

• • •

Harry—Mamma, what's a volume of sound?

Mamma—Usually a book of speeches.

OUR EXACT ARTIST

GETTING ON TO THE ROPES

Always
in good humor